Looking Ahead

- Improving airline traffic visible globally
  - Resurgence in passenger numbers in large domestic markets already clear
  - Long-haul markets recovering as new travel lanes are opened
  - Omicron impact has fallen away in EU and US markets; Asia is poised to follow suit as more markets open up
  - Russian airspace closure having limited effect on overall travel demand
- Higher interest rates and fuel prices provide financing opportunities for well-capitalised operating lessors
  - Airline capex showing signs of distinct recovery
- China re-opening will drive upside for Southeast Asia: travel volumes already recovering and this before the 42 million Chinese that travelled to the region in 2019
- A global aircraft operating lessor committed for the long-term
  - Robust delivery numbers in 2021
  - Orderbook and available liquidity position us well to capture airline demand upturn
  - New orders refresh delivery pipeline
  - Three female Directors out of Board of 11
