2. Summary of significant accounting policies

2.1 Basis of presentation and preparation

As at 31 December 2015, the Group's and the Company's current liabilities exceeded its current assets by US$461.5 million and US$495.4 million respectively (2014: US$658.7 million and US$429.2 million respectively). The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis as the management is reasonably confident that the Group will have sufficient resources including committed rental cash flows and unutilised committed banking facilities for it to pay its debts as and when they fall due.

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB). For all periods up to and including the year ended 31 December 2014, the Group prepared its financial statements in accordance with Singapore Financial Reporting Standards (SFRS). These financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2015 are the first the Group has prepared in accordance with IFRS. Refer to Note 2.2 for information on first-time adoption of IFRS.

The financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost convention, except as disclosed in the accounting policies and explanatory notes below. The financial statements are presented in the Group's functional currency, United States Dollar ("US$") and all values are rounded to the nearest thousand (US$'000), except when otherwise indicated.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with IFRS requires management to exercise its judgment in the process of applying the Group's accounting policies. It also requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates and assumptions. The areas involving a higher degree of judgment or complexity, or areas where estimates and assumptions are significant to the financial statements are disclosed in Note 3.

For the transition to IFRS, the Group prepares the opening statement of financial position as at 1 January 2014.

The estimates at 1 January 2014 and at 31 December 2014 are consistent with those made for the same dates in accordance with SFRS.

The Group has not applied any exemptions from the retrospective application of certain requirements under IFRS.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (cont'd)

2.3 (b) Improvements to IFRSs

"Improvements to IFRSs" contains numerous amendments to IFRSs. It comprises amendments that result in accounting changes for presentation, recognition or measurement purpose as well as terminology or editorial amendments related to a variety of individual IFRSs. The amendments will be effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2016. The Group does not expect the adoption of these improvements to IFRSs to have material impact on the financial statements in the period of initial application.

2.4 Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements comprise the financial statements of the Company and its subsidiary companies as at 31 December 2015. The financial statements of the subsidiary companies used in the preparation of the consolidated financial statements are prepared for the same reporting date as the Company. Consistent accounting policies are applied to like transactions and events in similar circumstances.

All significant balances, income and expenses and unrealised gains and losses resulting from intra-group transactions and dividends are eliminated in full.

Subsidiary companies are consolidated from the date of acquisition, being the date on which the Group obtains control, and continue to be consolidated until the date that such control ceases.

2.5 Functional and foreign currency

(a) Functional and presentation currency

Items included in the financial statements of each entity in the Group are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates ("functional currency").

(b) Foreign currency transactions

Transactions in foreign currencies are measured at exchange rates approximating those ruling at the transaction dates. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the rate of exchange ruling at the end of each year. Exchange differences arising from the translation of monetary assets and liabilities are taken to profit or loss. Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates as at the dates of the initial transactions.

2.6 Plant and equipment

(a) Aircraft

Purchased aircraft on operating lease to airline operators are included under plant and equipment and initially recorded at cost. Such costs include borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition of plant and equipment prior to delivery. Subsequent to recognition, purchased aircraft are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment loss. Modifications and all other costs associated with placing the aircraft in service are capitalised. The cost of aircraft is stated net of manufacturers' credits. Expenditure for additions and improvements is capitalised. Expenditure for maintenance and repairs, unless drawn from maintenance reserves, is charged to profit or loss.

The Group accounts for aircraft leased as finance leases if the lease agreements give the Group rights approximating to ownership when the Group is the lessee. The assets are capitalised under plant and equipment as if they had been purchased outright at the inception of the lease term at the fair value of the leased asset or, if lower, at the present value of the minimum lease payments. The corresponding lease commitment is included under liabilities. Lease payments consist of principal and interest elements and the interest is charged to profit or loss. Depreciation on the relevant asset is charged to profit or loss.

The carrying values of aircraft are reviewed for impairment when events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying values may not be recoverable.

(b) Aircraft progress payments

Aircraft progress payments relate to pre-delivery payments for aircraft under construction. These progress payments are recognised under plant and equipment when payments are made.

(c) Other plant and equipment

Other plant and equipment comprises office renovations, furniture, fittings and office equipment and are initially recognised at cost. Subsequent to recognition, these assets are stated at cost, less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment loss. Cost comprises purchase price and any directly attributable costs of bringing the asset to working condition for its intended use. Expenditure for additions and improvements is capitalised. Expenditure for maintenance and repairs is charged to profit or loss.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (cont'd)

2.6 Plant and equipment (cont'd)

(d) Depreciation

Aircraft are depreciated on a straight-line basis over 25 years less aircraft's age with 15% residual value at the end of 25th year for the first 12 years. The remaining value at the end of 12th year is depreciated using straight-line basis with no residual value over the remaining 13 years.

Depreciation on other plant and equipment are calculated using the straight-line method to allocate the depreciable amounts over their estimated useful lives. The estimated useful lives of these plant and equipment are as follows:

Office renovations	- 3 to 5 years
Furniture, fittings and office equipment	- 1 to 3 years

Fully depreciated assets are retained in the financial statements until they are no longer in use.

The residual values, useful life and depreciation method are reviewed and adjusted, as appropriate, at each year end to ensure that the amount, method and period of depreciation are consistent with previous estimates and the expected pattern of consumption of the future economic benefits embodied in the items of plant and equipment. The effects of any revision are recognised in profit or loss when the changes arise.

(e) Disposal

An item of plant and equipment is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition of the asset is included in profit or loss in the period the asset is derecognised.

2.7 Non-current assets held for sale

Non-current assets classified as held for sale are measured at the lower of their carrying amounts and fair value less costs to sell. Non-current assets are classified as held for sale if their carrying amounts will be recovered principally through a sale transaction rather than through continuing use and the sale is highly probable. Property, plant and equipment, once classified as held for sale are not depreciated.

2.8 Lease transaction closing costs

Upfront legal fees and all other initial direct costs incurred in procuring the lease for the aircraft are capitalised and amortised on a straight-line basis over the related lease period in profit or loss.

Where the lease agreement is terminated or novated prior to its expiry date, the remaining lease transaction closing costs will be written off to the profit or loss.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (cont'd)

2.9 Impairment of non-financial assets

The Group assesses at each reporting date whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any indication exists, or when an annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the Group makes an estimate of the asset's recoverable amount.

An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use and is determined for an individual asset. Where the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows expected to be generated by the asset are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. In determining fair value less costs of disposal, recent market transactions are taken into account, if available. If no such transactions can be identified, an appropriate valuation model is used.

For assets excluding goodwill, an assessment is made at each reporting date as to whether there is any indication that previously recognised impairment losses may no longer exist or may have decreased. If such indication exists, the Group estimates the asset's recoverable amount. A previously recognised impairment loss is reversed only if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the asset's recoverable amount since the last impairment loss was recognised. If that is the case, the carrying amount of the asset is increased to its recoverable amount. That increase cannot exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation, had no impairment loss been recognised previously. Such reversal is recognised in profit or loss.

2.10 Subsidiary Companies

A subsidiary company is an investee that is controlled by the Group. The Group controls an investee when it is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the investee.

In the Company's separate financial statements, investments in subsidiary companies are accounted for at cost less impairment losses.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (cont'd)

2.11 Financial instruments

(a) Financial assets

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial assets are recognised when, and only when, the Group becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the financial instrument. The Group determines the classification of its financial assets at initial recognition.

When financial assets are recognised initially, they are measured at fair value, plus, in the case of financial assets not at fair value through profit or loss, directly attributable transaction costs.

All purchases and sales of financial assets are recognised or derecognised on the trade date i.e. the date that the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset.

Subsequent measurement

(i) Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

Financial assets classified as held for trading are included in the category “financial assets at fair value through profit or loss”. Financial assets are classified as held for trading if they are acquired for the purpose of selling in the near term. This category includes derivative financial instruments entered into by the Group that are not designated as hedging instruments in hedge relationships.

Subsequent to initial recognition, financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are measured at fair value. Any gains or losses arising from changes in fair value of the financial assets are recognised in profit or loss.

(ii) Loans and receivables

Non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market are classified as loans and receivables. Subsequent to initial recognition, loans and receivables are measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less impairment. Gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss when the loans and receivables are derecognised or impaired, and through the amortisation process.

Derecognition

A financial asset is derecognised where the contractual right to receive cash flows from the asset has expired. On de-recognition of a financial asset in its entirety, the difference between the carrying amount and the sum of the consideration received and any cumulative gain or loss that had been recognised in other comprehensive income is recognised in profit or loss.

2.11 Financial instruments (cont'd)

(b) Financial liabilities

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial liabilities are recognised when, and only when, the Group becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the financial instrument. The Group determines the classification of its financial liabilities at initial recognition.

Financial liabilities are recognised initially at fair value, plus, in the case of other financial liabilities not at fair value through profit or loss, directly attributable transaction costs.

Subsequent measurement

The measurement of financial liabilities depends on their classification as follows:

(i) Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss include financial liabilities held for trading and financial liabilities designated upon initial recognition at fair value. Financial liabilities are classified as held for trading if they are acquired for the purpose of selling in the near term. This category includes derivative financial instruments entered into by the Group that are not designated as hedging instruments in hedge relationships.

Subsequent to initial recognition, financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are measured at fair value. Any gains or losses arising from changes in fair value of the financial liabilities are recognised in profit or loss.

(ii) Other financial liabilities

After initial recognition, financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method. Gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss when the liabilities are derecognised, and through the amortisation process.

Derecognition

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as a de-recognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability, and the difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognised in profit or loss.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (cont'd)

2.11 Financial instruments (cont'd)

(c) Offsetting of financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount is presented in the statement of financial position, when and only when, there is a currently enforceable legal right to set off the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis, or to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

2.12 Impairment of financial assets

The Group assesses at the end of each year whether there is any objective evidence that a financial asset or a group of financial assets is impaired.

For financial assets carried at amortised cost, the Group first assesses whether objective evidence of impairment exists individually for financial assets that are individually significant, or collectively for financial assets that are not individually significant. If the Group determines that no objective evidence of impairment exists for an individually assessed financial asset, whether significant or not, it includes the asset in a group of financial assets with similar credit risk characteristics and collectively assesses them for impairment. Assets that are individually assessed for impairment and for which an impairment loss is, or continues to be, recognised are not included in a collective assessment of impairment.

If there is objective evidence that an impairment loss on loans and receivables carried at amortised cost has been incurred, the amount of the loss is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows discounted at the financial asset's original effective interest rate (that is, the effective interest rate computed at initial recognition). If a loan has a variable interest rate, the discount rate for measuring any impairment loss is the current effective interest rate. The carrying amount of the asset is reduced through the use of an allowance account. The amount of loss is recognised in the profit or loss.

When the asset becomes uncollectible, the carrying amount of impaired financial assets is reduced directly or if an amount was charged to the allowance account, the amounts charged to the allowance account are written off against the carrying value of the financial asset.

To determine whether there is objective evidence that an impairment loss on financial assets has been incurred, the Group considers factors such as the probability of insolvency or significant financial difficulties of the debtor and default or significant delay in payments.

If, in a subsequent period, the amount of the impairment loss decreases and the decrease can be related objectively to an event occurring after the impairment was recognised, the previously recognised impairment loss is reversed. Any subsequent reversal of an impairment loss is recognised in the profit or loss to the extent that the carrying amount of the asset does not exceed its amortised cost at the reversal date.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (cont'd)

2.13 Derivative financial instruments and hedging activities

The Group uses derivative financial instruments such as cross-currency interest rate swap, interest rate swap, interest rate cap and foreign exchange forward contracts to hedge its risks associated with foreign currency and interest rate fluctuations. Such derivative financial instruments are initially recognised at fair values on the date on which derivative contracts are entered into and are subsequently re-measured at fair value. Derivative financial instruments are carried as assets when the fair values are positive and as liabilities when the fair values are negative.

Any gains or losses arising from changes in fair values on derivative financial instruments that do not qualify for hedge accounting are taken to profit or loss for the period.

The fair values of cross-currency interest rate swap, interest rate swap, interest rate cap and foreign exchange forward contracts are determined by marked-to-market values provided by counterparties.

The Group applies hedge accounting for certain hedging relationships which qualify for hedge accounting.

For the purpose of hedge accounting, hedges are classified as:

- (a) Fair value hedges when hedging the exposure to changes in the fair values of a recognised asset or liability that is attributable to a particular risk and could affect profit or loss; and
- (b) Cash flow hedges when hedging exposure to variability in cash flows that is either attributable to a particular risk associated with a recognised asset or liability or a highly probable forecast transaction and could affect the profit or loss.

At the inception of a hedge relationship, the Group formally designates and documents the hedge relationship to which the Group wishes to apply hedge accounting and the risk management objective and strategy for undertaking the hedge. The documentation includes identification of the hedging instrument, the hedged item or transaction, the nature of the risk being hedged and how the entity will assess the hedging instrument's effectiveness in offsetting the exposure to changes in the hedged item's fair values or cash flows attributable to the hedged risk. Such hedges are expected to be highly effective in achieving offsetting changes in fair values or cash flows and are assessed on an ongoing basis to determine that they actually have been highly effective throughout the financial reporting periods for which they were designated.

For the financial year ended 31 December 2015

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (cont'd)

2.13 Derivative financial instruments and hedging activities (cont'd)

Hedges which meet the strict criteria for hedge accounting are accounted for as follows:

(a) Fair value hedges

For fair value hedges, the carrying amount of the hedged item is adjusted for gains and losses attributable to the risk being hedged, the derivative is remeasured at fair value and gains and losses from both are taken to profit or loss.

(b) Cash flow hedges

For cash flow hedges, the effective portion of the gain or loss on the hedging instrument is recognised directly in the hedging reserve, while the ineffective portion is recognised in profit or loss.

Amounts taken to hedging reserve are transferred to profit or loss when the hedged transaction affects profit or loss, such as when hedged financial income or financial expense is recognised or when a forecast sale or purchase occurs. Where the hedged item is the cost of a non-financial asset or liability, the amounts taken to hedging reserve are transferred to the initial carrying amount of the non-financial asset or liability.

If the forecast transaction is no longer expected to occur, amounts previously recognised in hedging reserve are transferred to profit or loss. If the hedging instrument expires or is sold, terminated or exercised without replacement or rollover, or if its designation as a hedge is revoked, amounts previously recognised in hedging reserve remain in other comprehensive income until the forecast transaction occurs. If the related transaction is not expected to occur, the amount is taken to profit or loss.

2.14 Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the Group has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and the amount of the obligation can be estimated reliably.

Provisions are reviewed at the end of each year and adjusted to reflect the current best estimate. If it is no longer probable that an outflow of economic resources will be required to settle the obligation, the provision is reversed. If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are discounted using a current pre-tax rate that reflects, where appropriate, the risks specific to the liability. When discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as a finance cost.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (cont'd)

2.15 Maintenance reserves

Normal maintenance and repairs, airframe and engine overhauls, and compliance with return conditions of the aircraft placed on operating leases are provided by and paid for by the lessees. Certain lease agreements require the lessee to make monthly or end of lease maintenance reserves contributions to the Group which subsequently can be drawn on to pay for certain maintenance events carried out. These maintenance reserves balances are accounted for as liabilities. Upon termination of the lease, any unutilised maintenance reserves balance will be released to the profit or loss or continued to be retained as reserves for drawdown by the follow-on operator. Upon sale of the aircraft, any unutilised maintenance reserves balance not transferred to buyer will be released to the profit or loss. Any shortfall identified in the balances held in respect of historic operation of the aircraft that may be required to be made available for drawdown by follow-on operators are provided as a charge to the profit or loss.

2.16 Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs consist of interest and other costs that the Group incurs in connection with the borrowing of funds. Borrowing costs are capitalised as part of the cost of a qualifying asset if they are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of that asset. Capitalisation of borrowing costs commences when the activities to prepare the asset for its intended use is in progress, and the expenditure of the asset and borrowing costs are incurred. Borrowing costs are capitalised until the assets are substantially completed for their intended use. The Group borrows to finance certain progress payments for aircraft under construction. The interest incurred on such borrowings is capitalised and included in the cost of the aircraft, except for the interest incurred for aircraft pre-delivery payments arising from lease commitment or advances of pre-delivery payments on which the Group earns income. Capitalisation of interest ceases when the aircraft is delivered. All other borrowing costs are expensed in the period they occur.

2.17 Debt issue costs

Debt issue costs are costs incurred in connection with obtaining financing. These costs comprise primarily front-end fees, agency fees and legal fees.

On initial recognition of a financial liability, debt issue costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition of the financial liability are included in the initial measurement of that liability. These costs are amortised over the related life of the debt using the effective interest method and written off upon prepayment of the financial liability, except for those debt issue costs relating to credit facilities which remain available for re-drawing after prepayment.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (cont'd)

2.18 Trade and other payables

Liabilities for trade and other payables including payables to related parties, which are normally settled within 30-day credit terms, are initially carried at cost which is the fair value of the consideration to be paid in the future for goods and services received, whether or not billed to the Group and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

Gains and losses are recognised in the profit or loss when the liabilities are derecognised as well as through the amortisation process.

2.19 Employee benefits

(a) Short term employee benefits

All short term employee benefits, including accumulated compensated absences, are recognised in the profit or loss in the period in which the employees render their services to the Group.

(b) Short term incentive plan

The short term incentive plan bonus is payable to employees of the Group when certain key performance targets for each year are met and payment is to be made over a period. The bonus is accrued and recognised in the profit or loss in the period in which the employees render their services to the Group. Any over or under provision will be recognised in the profit or loss.

(c) Long term incentive plan

The long term incentive plan is payable to selected employees of the Group based on the achievement of certain key performance targets at the end of a pre-determined period. The bonus is accrued and recognised in the profit or loss in the period in which the employees render their services to the Group. Any over or under provision will be recognised in the profit or loss. Payment of accrued bonus will be made over a period after each pre-determined period.

(d) Employer's defined contribution benefits

As required by law, the Group makes contributions to Central Provident Fund ("CPF") in Singapore, National Insurance in United Kingdom, Pay Related Social Insurance in Ireland, Federal Insurance Contributions in United States of America and Social Insurance in China. These contributions are recognised as compensation expenses in the period in which the employees render their services to the Group.

2.20 Leases

(a) Where the Group or the Company is the lessor

Leases where the Group or the Company retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the asset are classified as operating leases. Initial direct costs incurred in negotiating an operating lease are added to the carrying amount of the leased asset and recognised over the lease term on the same basis as rental income. The accounting policy for rental income is set out in Note 2.21. Contingent rents are recognised as revenue in the period in which they are earned.

Finance leases, which effectively transfer to lessee substantially all the risks and benefits incidental to ownership of the leased asset, are recognised at the inception of the lease term at the fair value of the leased asset or, if lower, at the present value of the minimum lease payments. Lease receipts are apportioned between the finance income and reduction of the leased asset so as to achieve a constant rate of interest on the remaining balance of the asset. Finance income are charged directly to the profit or loss.

(b) Where the Group or the Company is the lessee

Finance leases, which effectively transfer to the Group or the Company substantially all the risks and benefits incidental to ownership of the leased asset, are capitalised at the inception of the lease term at the fair value of the leased asset or, if lower, at the present value of the minimum lease payments and disclosed under Note 36. Any initial direct costs are also added to the amount capitalised. Lease payments are apportioned between the finance charges and reduction of the lease liability so as to achieve a constant rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability. Finance charges are charged directly to the profit or loss.

Capitalised leased assets are depreciated over the shorter of the estimated useful life of the asset and the lease term, if there is no reasonable certainty that the Group will obtain ownership of the leased asset by the end of the lease term.

Leases where the lessor effectively retains substantially all the risks and benefits of ownership during the lease term are classified as operating leases. Operating lease payments are recognised as an expense in the profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

2.21 Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognised to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Group and the revenue can be reliably measured. Revenue is measured at the fair value of consideration received or receivable, excluding discounts, rebates, and sales taxes or duties.

(a) Lease income

The Company and certain of its subsidiary companies, as lessors, lease aircraft under operating leases. Lease income is recognised over the lease term as and when rentals become receivable under the provisions of the lease agreements.

Operating leases with step rentals are recognised on a straight-line basis over the term of the initial lease, assuming no renewals.

Lease income is not recognised if the collections are not probable due to prolonged financial difficulties of lessees.

(b) Remarketing and lease management fees

Arrangement, remarketing and lease management fees are recognised as revenue upon rendering of services.

(c) Dividend income

Dividend income from investments is recognised when the Company's right to receive payment is established.

(d) Interest income

Interest income is recognised on an accrual basis unless collectability is in doubt.

(e) Lease termination fees

Lease termination fees are recognised based on contractual agreement with third parties to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Group.

2.22 Taxes

(a) Current income tax

Current income tax assets and liabilities for the current and prior periods are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the tax authorities. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted or substantively enacted at the end of each year, in the countries where the Group operates and generates taxable income.

Current income taxes are recognised in profit or loss except to the extent that the tax relates to items recognised outside profit or loss, either in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in the tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulations are subject to interpretation and establishes provisions where appropriate.

(b) Deferred income tax

Deferred tax is provided using the liability method on temporary differences at the end of each year between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all temporary differences, except:

- Where the deferred tax liability arises from the initial recognition of goodwill or of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss; and
- In respect of taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiary companies, where the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences can be controlled and it is probable that the temporary differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences, the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses, to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, and the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilised except:

- where the deferred tax asset relating to the deductible temporary difference arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss; and
- in respect of deductible temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiary companies, deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent that it is probable that the temporary differences will reverse in the foreseeable future and taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised.

2.22 Taxes (cont'd)

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each year and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilised. Unrecognised deferred tax assets are reassessed at the end of each year and are recognised to the extent that it has become probable that future taxable profit will allow the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the year when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the end of each year.

Deferred tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss. Deferred tax items are recognised in correlation to the underlying transaction either in other comprehensive income or directly in equity and deferred tax arising from a business combination is adjusted against goodwill on acquisition.

Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset if a legally enforceable right exists to set off current income tax assets against current income tax liabilities and the deferred taxes relate to the same taxable entity and the same tax authority.

2.23 Contingencies

A contingent liability is:

- (a) a possible obligation that arises from past events and whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Group; or
- (b) a present obligation that arises from past events but is not recognised because:
 - (i) It is not probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation; or
 - (ii) The amount of the obligation cannot be measured with sufficient reliability.

A contingent asset is a possible asset that arises from past events and whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Group.

Contingent liabilities and assets are not recognised in the statement of financial position of the Group, except for contingent liabilities assumed in a business combination that are present obligations and which the fair values can be reliably determined.

2.24 Related parties

A related party is defined as follows:

- (a) A person or a close member of that person's family is related to the Group and Company if that person:
 - (i) has control or joint control over the Company;
 - (ii) has significant influence over the Company; or
 - (iii) is a member of the key management personnel of the Group or Company or of a parent of the Company.
- (b) An entity is related to the Group and the Company if any of the following conditions applies:
 - (i) the entity and the Company are members of the same group (which means that each parent, subsidiary company and fellow subsidiary company is related to the others);
 - (ii) one entity is an associate or joint venture of the other entity (or an associate or joint venture of a member of a group of which the other entity is a member);
 - (iii) both entities are joint ventures of the same third party;
 - (iv) one entity is a joint venture of a third entity and the other entity is an associate of the third entity;
 - (v) the entity is a post-employment benefit plan for the benefit of employees of either the Company or an entity related to the Company. If the Company is itself such a plan, the sponsoring employers are also related to the Company;
 - (vi) the entity is controlled or jointly controlled by a person identified in (a); or
 - (vii) a person identified in (a) (i) has significant influence over the entity or is a member of the key management personnel of the entity (or of a parent of the entity).

3. Significant accounting judgments and estimates

The preparation of the Group's consolidated financial statements requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities, and the disclosure of contingent liabilities at the end of each year. Uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in outcomes that require a material adjustment to the carrying amount of the asset or liability affected in the future periods.

3.1 Judgments made in applying accounting policies

In the process of applying the Group's accounting policies, management has made the following judgments which have significant effect on the amounts recognised in the financial statements.

(i) Maintenance of aircraft by lessees

Maintenance, repairs and overhaul of the aircraft placed on operating leases are provided by and paid for by the lessees. Certain lease agreements require the lessees to make monthly or end of lease contributions to the Group which can subsequently be drawn on for certain maintenance events carried out. Management has made a judgment based on payment records that as at period end, the lessees are able to fulfil their obligations as stipulated in the lease agreements. For any shortfall identified, a provision for aircraft maintenance will be charged to the profit or loss.

(ii) Impairment of financial assets

The Group follows the guidance of IAS 39 in determining when a financial asset is other-than-temporarily impaired and this requires judgment. The Group evaluates, among other factors, the duration and extent to which the fair value of a financial asset is less than its cost.

(iii) Fair value of financial instruments

Where the fair values of financial instruments recorded in the statement of financial position cannot be derived from active markets, they are determined using a variety of valuation techniques that include the use of valuation models by counterparties. The valuation of financial instruments is described in more detail in Note 38.

3. Significant accounting judgments and estimates (cont'd)

3.1 Judgments made in applying accounting policies (cont'd)

(iv) Classification of leases

- Operating lease – As lessor

The Group's aircraft portfolio is on lease with various airlines. The Group has determined that it retains all significant risks and rewards of ownership of these aircraft which are leased out on operating leases.

- Finance lease – As lessor

The Group has entered into aircraft leases whereby the Group has determined that the lessee has assumed all risks and rewards of ownership. Accordingly, the Group has recorded the transaction as a sale of aircraft and finance lease receivables on the statement of financial position.

- Finance lease – As lessee

The Group has entered into aircraft leases whereby the Group has determined that it has assumed all the risks and rewards of ownership. Accordingly, the Group has recorded these aircraft on the statement of financial position.

(v) Deferred income taxes

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiary companies to the extent that the Company is able to control the timing of the reversal of the temporary difference and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future. The Company is subject to Singapore tax on all of its foreign pre-tax earnings when earnings are effectively repatriated unless tax exemption is applicable. Management judgment is required to determine that the undistributed profits of the subsidiary companies will not be distributed and remitted into Singapore in the foreseeable future. The Company provides for taxes on the undistributed earnings of foreign subsidiary companies except to the extent that such earnings are invested outside Singapore and likely to remain invested outside Singapore in the foreseeable future. The aggregate amount of temporary differences arising from potential Singapore tax exposure on undistributed earnings of foreign subsidiary companies and overseas unremitted income as at 31 December 2015 was US$817.4 million (2014: US$640.4 million) for which deferred tax liabilities have not been recognised.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for all unabsorbed capital allowances and unutilised tax losses to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the losses can be utilised. Management judgment is required to determine the amount of deferred tax assets that can be recognised, based upon the likely timing and level of future taxable profits together with future tax planning strategies.

3. Significant accounting judgments and estimates (cont'd)

(v) Deferred income taxes (cont'd)

The Company was granted a renewal of the concessionary tax rate of 5% with effect from 1 July 2012 under the 5-year Aircraft Leasing Scheme incentive by the Economic Development Board of Singapore. To qualify for 5 years of concessionary tax rate of 5%, the Company is required to achieve certain conditions within the 5-year period. Management is reasonably confident that the conditions can be met and is unaware of any reason that the extension of the enhanced concessionary rate after the expiry will not be considered.

Details have been disclosed in Note 11 and Note 27.

(vi) Non-current assets held for sale

Non-current asset is classified as held for sale when the asset is available for immediate sale in its present condition subject only to terms that are usual and customary and its sale must be highly probable. Management judgment is required to assess whether the asset meets the conditions to be classified as assets held for sale and details have been disclosed in Note 19.

3.2 Key sources of estimation uncertainty

The key assumptions concerning the future and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of each year are discussed below. The Group based its assumptions and estimates on parameters available when the financial statements were prepared. Existing circumstances and assumptions about future developments, however, may change due to market changes or circumstances arising beyond the control of the Group. Such changes are reflected in the assumptions when they occur.

(i) Impairment of aircraft

The Group follows the guidance of IAS 36 Impairment of Assets in determining whether it is necessary to recognise any impairment loss on an aircraft. This determination requires estimation of the fair value less cost to sell and the value in use of an aircraft. To estimate the fair value, the management uses independent aircraft appraisers' valuations which were derived based on certain assumptions or recent sale transactions. Estimating the value in use requires the Group to make an estimate of the expected future cash flows from the lease and also to choose a suitable discount rate in order to calculate the present value of those cash flows. Analysis of impairment loss provision is disclosed in Note 12 in the financial statements.

3. Significant accounting judgments and estimates (cont'd)

3.2 Key sources of estimation uncertainty (cont'd)

(ii) Depreciation of aircraft and estimation of residual values

Aircraft are depreciated on a straight-line basis over 25 years less aircraft's age with 15% residual value at the end of 25th year for the first 12 years. The remaining value at the end of 12th year is depreciated using straight-line basis with no residual value over the remaining 13 years. The management estimates the useful life to be 25 years based on the common life expectancies applied in the aircraft leasing industry.

Changes in the expected level of usage and technological developments could impact the economic useful lives and the residual values of these assets. Therefore, in these circumstances, future depreciation charges could be revised. A one-year difference in the expected useful lives of these assets from management's estimates would result in an increase in annual depreciation charges which is approximately US$16.4 million (2014: US$16.6 million). Such a decrease in the useful lives of the Group's aircraft could affect the Group's annual profit before tax in future.

(iii) Fair values

Fair values of the derivative financial instruments have been determined by marked-to-market values provided by counterparties as disclosed in Note 14.

Fair values of other financial instruments have been disclosed in Note 38.

(iv) Income taxes and deferred income taxes

The Group has exposure to income taxes in numerous jurisdictions. Estimation is involved in determining the Group-wide provision for income taxes. There are certain transactions and computations for which the ultimate tax determination is uncertain during the ordinary course of business. The Group recognises liabilities for expected tax issues based on estimates of whether additional taxes will be due. Where the final tax outcome of these matters is different from the amounts that were initially recognised, such differences will impact the income tax and deferred income tax provisions in the period in which such determination is made.

Details have been disclosed in Note 11 and Note 27.

12. Plant and equipment (cont'd)

(a) Impairment of assets

As at 31 December 2015, provision for impairment loss on the Group's and the Company's plant and equipment of US$80.5 million and US$7.2 million (2014: US$57.5 million and US$Nil) respectively was included in accumulated depreciation and impairment.

The impairment loss represents the write-down of the aircraft book value to recoverable amount. The recoverable amount was determined based on the management's best estimate of aircraft values from appraisers' valuation or value in use or estimated selling prices based on signed letter of intent to sell the aircraft. The estimated future cash flows of the aircraft were discounted to their present value using pre-tax discount rate to calculate the value in use. For the calculation of value in use, the weighted average discount rate is 2.8% (2014: 3.0%) per annum.

Movement of impairment loss provision:

14. Derivative financial instruments (cont'd)

Hedge accounting has been applied for interest rate swaps that are assessed by the Group to be effective hedges.

(a) Fair value hedges

The Group uses interest rate swaps to hedge against changes in fair value of medium term notes, issued at a fixed coupon rate, from changes in interest rates.

During the year 2015 and 2014, the Group and Company issued US$500 million notes and US$300 million notes, respectively, under its EMTN programme and GMTN program at fixed coupon rate which were swapped to floating rates. As at 31 December 2015 and 2014, the Group has interest rate swap contracts with a total notional amount of US$500 million and US$300 million, respectively, to hedge the interest rate exposure whereby the Group receives fixed rate and pays floating rate pegged to USD LIBOR on the notional amount on a half yearly basis. The terms of the interest rate swap contracts have been negotiated to match the terms of the notes and accordingly, the fair value hedges are assessed to be highly effective. The fair value of the derivative financial asset was US$2.0 million and US$1.5 million as at 31 December 2015 and 2014 respectively. The fair value of the derivative liability was US$0.9 million and US$Nil as at 31 December 2015 and 2014 respectively.

(b) Cash flow hedges

There were no cash flow hedges which applied hedge accounting as at 31 December 2015 and 2014.

38. Classification of financial instruments and their fair values

The carrying amounts of each category of financial assets and financial liabilities, as defined in FRS 39, are disclosed either in the statement of financial position or in the notes to the financial statements.

Loans and receivables comprise amounts due from subsidiary companies (Note 32), finance lease receivables (Note 36), trade receivables (Note 15), other receivables (Note 16), fixed deposits and cash and bank balances (Note 17 and Note 18).

As at 31 December 2015, the loans and receivables for the Group and Company were US$530.0 million (2014: US$383.9 million) and US$2,302.9 million (2014: US$2,157.0 million) respectively.

Financial liabilities measured at amortised cost comprise trade and other payables (Note 20), loans and borrowings (except as disclosed in Note 22), finance lease payables to subsidiary companies (Note 31), liabilities associated with assets held for sale (Note 19) and finance lease payables (Note 23).

As at 31 December 2015, the financial liabilities measured at amortised cost for the Group and Company were US$7,499.1 million (2014: US$7,114.5 million) and US$4,956.8 million (2014: US$4,331.2 million) respectively.

(a) Financial instruments carried at fair values

Financial assets and liabilities at fair value through profit or loss comprise derivative financial instruments (Note 14).

The fair values of the derivative financial instruments are determined by reference to marked-to-market values provided by counterparties. The fair value measurement of all derivative financial instruments under the Group are classified under Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy, for which inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (that is, as prices) or indirectly (that is, derived from prices) are included as inputs for the determination of fair value.

(b) Financial instruments whose fair values cannot be reliably measured

Amounts due from subsidiary companies are included in this category. The amounts will be derecognised where the contractual rights to receive cash flows from the subsidiary companies have ceased.

(c) Financial instruments whose carrying amounts approximate fair values

Management has determined that except for derivative financial instruments, the carrying amounts of its current financial assets and liabilities, based on their notional amounts, reasonably approximate their fair values because these are mostly short term in nature or are repriced frequently.

Non-current loans and borrowings reasonably approximate their fair values as they are floating rate instruments that are re-priced to market interest rates on or near the end of each year for the respective financial year.

For the financial year ended 31 December 2015

38. Classification of financial instruments and their fair values (cont'd)

(d) Financial instruments carried at other than fair values

Set out below is a comparison of carrying amounts and fair values of all of the Group's and Company's financial instruments that are carried in the financial statements at other than fair values:

	Group and Company

	US$'000	US$'000
Medium term notes
Carrying amounts	1,744,971	1,049,153

39. Financial risk management objectives and policies

The main risks arising from the Group's financial instruments are interest rate risk, liquidity risk, credit risk and foreign exchange risk. The Group reviews and agrees policies for managing each of these risks. The following sections provide details regarding the Group's exposure to financial risks and the objectives, policies and processes for the management of these risks.

There has been no significant change to the Group's exposure to these financial risks or the manner in which it manages and measures the risks.

(a) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair values or future cash flows of the Group's financial instruments will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Group's exposure to interest rate risk arises primarily from their loans and borrowings, finance lease payables to third parties and related parties, finance lease receivables and lease rental income and expenses.

The Group obtains financing through bank borrowings and capital market bond issues. The Group's objective is to obtain the most favourable interest rates available at acceptable terms and conditions.

A significant portion of the Group's loans and borrowings and finance lease payables are contracted at floating interest rates pegged to USD LIBOR. Interest rate exposure arises when the Group collects fixed rate rentals but pays floating interest rate under the borrowings.

A significant portion of the Group's financial assets and liabilities are based on floating interest rates pegged to USD LIBOR and are contractually repriced at intervals of less than 12 months (2014: less than 12 months) from the end of each year.

The Group's policy is to hedge at least 50% of its mismatched interest rate exposure through appropriate interest rate financial derivative instruments and borrowing fixed rate debts. At the end of each year, the Group has hedged approximately 60% (2014: 54%) of the Group's mismatched interest rate exposure.

For the financial year ended 31 December 2015

39. Financial risk management objectives and policies (cont'd)

(a) Interest rate risk (cont'd)

Sensitivity analysis for interest rate risk

Sensitivity analysis is performed based on the following assumptions on the outstanding financial instruments of the Group at the end of each year:

- Changes in interest rates affect the interest income or finance expenses of variable interest financial instruments which include deposits and floating rate loans.
- Changes in interest rates affect the fair values of derivative financial instruments.
- Changes in the fair values of derivative financial instruments and other financial assets and liabilities are estimated by discounting the future cash flows to net present values using appropriate market rates prevailing at the end of each year.

For a more meaningful analysis on the impact of interest rate on the Group, the sensitivity analysis includes the effect of interest rate fluctuation on the lease rental income.

Under these assumptions, an increase or decrease in interest rate of 10 basis points (2014: 10 basis points) with all other variables held constant will have the following effect on the Group's profit net of tax and the Group's hedging reserve in equity. The assumed movement in basis points for interest rate sensitivity analysis is based on currently observable market environment.

	Basis points	Group Effect on profit net of tax US$'000	Effect on hedging reserve in equity US$'000
2015
Increase in interest rate	+10	(1,668)	—
Decrease in interest rate	-10	1,690	—
2014
Increase in interest rate	+10	(730)	—
Decrease in interest rate	-10	1,198	—

(b) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Group will encounter difficulty in meeting financial obligations due to a mismatch of assets and liabilities and/or due to refinancing risk.

To ensure that the Group is able to meet its financial obligations, the Group's policy is to have its loan repayment spread over substantial periods of up to 12 years, and also to have available committed credit facilities from banks.

As at 31 December 2015, the Group had unutilised unsecured committed revolving credit facilities of US$2,510 million (2014: US$2,250 million) and committed long term credit facilities pending the provision of new replacement aircraft as collateral of US$165.8 million (2014: US$181.2 million).

The Group had also signed documentation in place for two unsecured term loan financing totalling US$525.0 million (2014: US$Nil) which were undrawn as of that date.

Revenue from lease rentals will be sufficient to meet annual interest and regular loan repayment over the next one year period.

As at 31 December 2015, approximately 11% (2014: 11%) of the Group's gross debt, comprising loans and borrowings and finance lease payables, would have matured in less than one year.

Analysis of financial instruments by remaining contractual maturities

The table below summarises the maturity profile of the Group's and the Company's financial assets and liabilities at the end of the year based on contractual undiscounted repayment obligations.

(c) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of loss that may arise on outstanding financial instruments should a counterparty default on its obligations.

The Group is exposed to credit risk in the carrying amounts of trade and other receivables, derivative financial instruments, fixed deposits and cash and bank balances. Typically, the Group's leasing arrangements require lessees to pay rentals in advance and to provide security deposits and in many cases maintenance reserves. However, an early termination of a lease due to a credit event may expose the Group to consequential economic loss due to lower rentals being available from replacement lessees and also possible costs associated with repossession, repair and maintenance and transitioning of the aircraft to a new lessee.

The Group's objective is to seek continual revenue growth while minimising credit losses. The Group undertakes credit appraisals on all potential lessees before entering into new leases and reviews the credit status of lessees annually. The Group also reviews the credit standing of vendors where significant and/or long term procurement contracts are being contemplated.

The Group's policy is to undertake deposit and derivatives transactions with reputable financial institutions which command an investment grade rating, typically not lower than the equivalent of Standard and Poor's "A-".

(i) Exposure to credit risk

At the end of each financial year, the Group's maximum exposure to credit risk is represented by:

- the carrying amount of each class of financial assets recognised in the statement of financial position, including derivatives with positive fair values; and
- corporate guarantees provided by the Group to the banks on bank loans taken up by subsidiary companies, and also in certain lease agreements entered into by subsidiary companies.

39. Financial risk management objectives and policies (cont'd)

(c) Credit risk (cont'd)

(ii) Credit risk concentration profile

The Group determines concentrations of credit risk by monitoring individual lessee and regional exposure to its trade receivables on an ongoing basis. The credit risk concentration profile of the Group's trade receivables at the end of each year is as follows:

	2015		2014
	US$'000	%	US$'000	%
By region:
Asia Pacific (excludes Chinese Mainland, Hong Kong SAR, Macau SAR and Taiwan)	—	—	53	1.1
Chinese Mainland, Hong Kong SAR, Macau SAR and Taiwan	—	—	38	0.8
Americas	—	—	27	0.6
Europe	400	100.0	4,665	97.5
	400	100.0	4,783	100.0

(iii) Financial assets that were neither past due nor impaired

Trade and other receivables that were neither past due nor impaired are creditworthy receivables with good payment records with the Group. Cash and cash equivalents and derivatives that are neither past due nor impaired are placed with or entered into with reputable financial institutions or companies with high credit ratings.

(iv) Financial assets that are either past due or impaired

Information regarding financial assets that are either past due or impaired is disclosed in Note 15 and 16.

(d) Foreign currency risk

The Group has transactional currency exposures mainly arising from its borrowings that are denominated in a currency other than the functional currency of the Group.

All loans and borrowings which are denominated in Australian Dollar, Chinese Yuan and Singapore Dollar are swapped into United States Dollar. Foreign currency exposure arises when the Group collects United States Dollar rentals to repay the Australian Dollar, Chinese Yuan or Singapore Dollar borrowings. The Group primarily utilises cross-currency interest rate swap contracts to hedge its Australian Dollar, Chinese Yuan and Singapore Dollar denominated financial liabilities.

Accordingly, a movement in foreign currency exchange rate is not expected to have a material impact on the Group's financial statements.

For the financial year ended 31 December 2015

40. Capital management

The primary objective of the Group's capital management is to ensure that it maximises shareholder value given an optimal debt to equity structure.

The Group manages its capital structure and makes adjustments to it after taking into account its capital expenditure and financing requirements. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group may request for additional capital from the shareholder, adjust dividends payment to the shareholder or return capital to the shareholder. No changes were made in the objectives, policies or processes during the year ended 31 December 2015 and 31 December 2014.

The Group monitors capital using a gearing, which is gross debt divided by total equity. The Group ensures that it operates within the gearing covenant in the loan facilities. Gross debts comprise the Group's loans and borrowings and finance lease payables before adjustments for debt issue costs, fair values and discounts/premiums to medium term notes. Total equity refers to the equity attributable to the equity holder of the Company.

41. Basic and diluted earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing profit for the year attributable to ordinary equity holder of the Company by the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the year.

Diluted earnings per share is calculated by dividing profit for the year attributable to ordinary equity holder of the Company by the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the year plus the weighted average number of ordinary shares that would be issued on the conversion of all the dilutive potential ordinary shares into ordinary shares.

42. Segmental analysis

All revenues are derived from the Group's principal activities and business segment of leasing and management of aircraft leases and other related activities. Revenue and assets are analysed by geographical region (by country of origin) as follows:

(a) Lease rental income

Lease rental income is derived from leasing of aircraft to various operators around the world. The distribution of lease rental income by operator's geographic region based on each airline's principal place of business is as follows:

	2015		2014
	US$'000	%	US$'000	%

(a) Lease rental income (cont'd)

Other than the lease rental income attributable to Spain which accounted for 10.4% of the total lease rental income in 2014, there was no other country concentration in excess of 10% of the total lease rental income.

Other than one major customer (operators under common control) which accounted for 10.7% of the total lease rental income in 2014, there was no other customer concentration in excess of 10% of the total lease rental income.

(b) Net book value of aircraft

The distribution of net book value of the aircraft by operator's geographic region based on each airline's principal place of business is as follows:
